The screenshot displays the 'NZ Topographic Map - GJP2' interface. On the left, a vertical toolbar contains various map controls. A red arrow labeled '1' points to the 'Layers' icon (a stack of squares) in this toolbar. The main panel is divided into two sections. The top section, titled 'Administrative/Parcel/line (Line)', shows a list of layers. A red arrow labeled '2' points to the 'Administrative/Parcel/line' layer, which is currently selected. The bottom section, titled 'Appearance', shows settings for the selected layer, including 'Color' (#e0e0e0), 'Pattern' (None), 'Opacity' (100%), 'Width' (1 px), and 'Blur' (0 px). On the right, a map view shows a residential area with buildings and streets. A red arrow labeled '2' points to a toggle switch in the 'Visibility' section of the 'Administrative/Parcel/line' layer, which is currently turned on. The map view also shows a zoom control and a scale bar.

The screenshot displays the 'Change Style' interface for the 'Administrative/House numbers/Housenumbers' layer in the Esri Map Viewer. The interface is divided into three main sections:

- Left Sidebar: Contains a list of layers. A red arrow labeled '1' points to the 'Administrative/House numbers/Housenumbers' layer, which is currently selected.
- Central Panel: Contains settings for the selected layer. A red arrow labeled '2' points to the 'Visible' toggle switch, which is currently turned on. Other settings include 'Visible Zoom Range' (set to 18 to 23), 'Icon Appearance' (set to 'None'), and 'Text Appearance' (set to 'Noto Sans Regular' with a size of 10.6667 px).
- Right Panel: Displays a map view of the selected area. A red arrow labeled '3' points to the 'Save style and close' button at the bottom right of the interface.

At the bottom of the interface, there are buttons for 'No Background', 'Hillshade', 'Imagery', and 'Show Minimaps'. The 'Save style and close' button is highlighted with a red arrow labeled '3'.
